

It's always tough when buggy whips become obsolete, isn't it? I'm a 50+ Boomer, who hasn't listen to broadcast radio in years, except for NPR, now and then.
I paid plenty to get the services that XM Radio offers. This is demand driven. What part of free market economy is not understood?

Got the picture. Leave it alone.

Margaret Nelson Fowler